C. INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Widespread and systematic attacks directed against the civilian population were committed in East Timor in 1999. These attacks were marked by two interconnected periods of intensified violence; that following the announcement on 27 January 1999 by the Government of the Indonesia, that the people of East Timor would be allowed to choose between autonomy with Indonesia or Independence, to 4 September 1999, the date of the announcement of the result of the popular consultation in which 78.5 per cent voted against the proposed special autonomy within the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia; and that between this date and 25 October 1999. The attacks were part of an orchestrated campaign of violence, that included incitement, intimidation and threats to life carried out by pro-autonomy militia, members of the Indonesian Armed Forces, ABRI (Angkatan Bersenjata Republik Indonesia), renamed TNI (Tentara Nasional Indonesia in 1999), and of the Indonesian Police Force (POLRI) with the acquiescence and active participation of Civilian and Military Authorities.

2. These large-scale attacks were indiscriminately directed against civilians of all age groups, the most frequent type of lethal injury being death by sharp force injury, gun shot injury, blunt force trauma and a combination of the three. Attacks were also directed against property and livestock. Systematic acts of violence caused the internal displacement of thousands of persons (IDPs). Additionally, the forcible transfer and deportation of the civilian population within East Timor and to West Timor, Indonesia was an essential feature of that violence.

3. Pro autonomy militia groups and their activities were organized and directed by the paramilitary umbrella organization, the Integration Fighting Forces (PPI), (Pasukan Pejuang Integrasi) which had the official backing of the TNI and the Civil Administration. PPI Commanders issued, called upon and incited militia groups and their members to intimidate pro independence supporters and those perceived to support them, such as members of the Clergy.

4. During the events referred to in this Indictment, the Indonesian Armed Forces in East Timor consisted of both the regular territorial forces (BTT) and special combat forces, i.e. the Strategic Reserve Command (KOSTRAD), (Komando Strategis Angkatan Darat) and Special Forces Command (KOPASSUS) (Komando Pasukan Khusus), all of which had units, staff officers and soldiers stationed in East Timor.

5. Between February and October 1999, the TNI forces present in Lautem District were the 745 Battalion (based in Fuiloro village), the 621 and 623 Battalions (based primarily in Rasa and Assailiano), KODIM (District Military Command) Unit 1629 (based at Lospalos and divided into five sub-district military commands (KORAMIL)) and KOPASSUS (based at Laruara in Los Palos).

6. From January to October 1999, the Indonesian Armed Forces in East Timor also comprised the Indonesian Police Force (POLRI), the state agency for upholding the law and public order. It also included the Mobile Police Brigade (BRIMOB), whose Units and members were stationed in East Timor, including Lautem District. The District level Police (POLRES) headed by a District Police Chief (Kapolres) was based in Los Palos.

7. The terms of the 5 May 1999 Agreements, between Indonesia, Portugal and the United Nations on the popular consultation, under which the appropriate Indonesian security authorities (TNI and POLRI) had the responsibility to ensure a safe environment devoid of violence or other forms of intimidation as well as the general maintenance of law and order were not met. No attempt was made to disarm or neutralize Team Alfa members. They were allowed to act with impunity.

8. Between February and September 1999, the Civil Administration of Lautem District was headed by the Bupati (District or Regency Administrator), who was appointed by the local parliament and Governor of East Timor with the approval of the Minister of Interior of the Republic of Indonesia. The Bupati of Lautem District was Edmundo da Conceicao e Silva. As head of the civil administration he governed Lautem District along with the TNI Commander for the District (Dandim). Bupati Edmundo da Conceicao was an Honorary Member of KOPASSUS and participated in meetings on strategic military planning affecting Lautem District.

9. In Lautem District, Indonesian military forces worked in close cooperation with armed groups, namely Team Alfa, Barisan Rakyat Timor Timur (BRTT) and the Pengamanan Swakarsa, 'PAM Swakarsa', (self-initiated security groups). Team Alfa (sometimes also referred to as Jati Merah Putih (i.e. Authentic Red and White,) was established in 1986 by Captain Luhut Panjaitan of KOPASSUS as a locally recruited and constituted armed paramilitary group (Ratih) to fight against the FALANTIL (Armed Forces for the National Liberation of East Timor). KOPASSUS Commanders directed the activities of Team Alfa.

10. Between March and September 1999, Lt. SYAFUL ANWAR was one of the Commanders of KOPASSUS in Lautem District. He had authority and control over members of Team Alfa, and issued orders and instructions which were executed by the team.

11. Between January and October 1999, Team Alfa and KOPASSUS operated out of the same building in Laruara, Los Palos. They shared logistic support, including transportation. Team Alfa members were armed equipped and trained by the TNI, including KOPASSUS. The cooperation between the Militia and the TNI included joint operations and attacks in which members of Team Alfa unlawfully arrested and abducted civilians who were subsequently taken to and interrogated at TNI barracks, particularly at the Battalion 745 base.

12. Between February and September 1999, influential district pro autonomy leaders, including, Francisco Correia Pinto (President of the District Assembly, Dewan Perwakilan Rakyat Daerah Tingkat II), and others exercised authority and control over Team Alfa, BRTT and PAM swakarsa. All were honorary members of KOPASSUS and gave instructions to Team Alfa. Team Alfa members, in particular JONI MARQUES, provided security to the Bupati. Members of Team Alfa received salaries from the Forum for Unity, Democracy and Justice Forum (FPDK), (Persatuan untuk Demokrasi dan Keadilan), a pro-autonomy front that was controlled by the Bupati, as well as from the TNI, which also provided them with food rations.

13. Between 27 January and 30 August 1999 acts of intimidation and violence by elements of the TNI and armed Militia groups increased in Lautem District. Such attacks included the unlawful arrest, torture and murder of Evaristo Lopes on 21 April 1999, and the murder of the Liurai (King) of Lospalos, Verissimo Dias Quintas, on 27 August 1999, and the burning of his home, which had been the office of the CNRT (National Council of Timorese Resistance) in Los Palos.

14. From 4 September 1999, the campaign of violence against civilians escalated in Lautem District. This included intimidation, widespread arson, plunder and looting. It was also marked by the deportation or forcible transfer of the civilian population, which was forced out of the villages to Military Barracks, to the Battalion 745 base, to the port of Com and to Kupang, West Timor or to other parts of Indonesia. The attacks, coerced population transfers and deportations of people from Leuro and other villages (e.g. Foemaa, Souro, Omakano), along with the abduction and murder of Alexio Oliveira on 11 September 1999, charged in this Indictment, took place within this context.

15. On 3 September 1999, there was a meeting at the Laruara base in Los Palos between the Bupati, Edmundo da Conceicao e Silva, Francisco Correia Pinto (Head of District Assembly), KOPASSUS commanders and officers and about twenty Team Alfa members, including JONI MARQUES. The meeting discussed Team Alfa's past incidents, including the killing of Evaristo Lopes. At this gathering, the Bupati and the KOPASSUS present stressed the need for Team Alfa to be as clean as possible when undertaking operations such as kidnapping and arson. Pro -autonomy leaders also blamed the clergy for the result of the popular consultation, as they were believed to have encouraged the population to vote in favour of independence.

16. For each count charging Crimes against Humanity, the acts or omissions by the accused were undertaken as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the civilian population, with knowledge of the attack.

D. INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

17. Each of the accused is individually criminally responsible for the crimes alleged against him in this indictment pursuant to Section 14 of UNTAET Regulation 2000/15. Under Section 14.2 and 14.3 (a) to (d) individual criminal responsibility results if the individual committed, planned, instigated, ordered, solicited, induced, aided, abetted or otherwise assisted in the crimes commission, or attempted commission. In addition, individual criminal responsibility results if an individual attempts to commit a crime and takes a substantial step towards its execution. Finally, individual criminal responsibility results if an individual in any other way contributes to the commission or attempted commission of the crime, if such contribution is intentional and is either (i) made with the aim of furthering the criminal activity or purpose of a group or (ii) is made with the knowledge of the intention of the group to commit the crime.

Evaristo Lopes, who had long hair, was immediately targeted. JOAO DA COSTA alias LEMORAI, JONI MARQUES, MAUTERSA MONIS and others beat him with iron rods. The beating went on for several minutes before SYAFUL ANWAR, Deputy Commander of KOPASSUS, who was watching in a vehicle, parked close by, intervened to stop it. SYAFUL ANWAR ordered the group to take Evaristo Lopes to the nearby Team Alfa base at Laruara, which was also the KOPASSUS base.

22. On or around 8 September 1999, following the announcement of the popular consultation, JONI MARQUES, ALARICO FERNANDES and other members of Team Alfa went to Leuro. They were armed with rifles, machetes and swords and carried a container of kerosene. Together with the Village Chief (Kepala Desa), FELISBERTO SAVIO, they began to intimidate and threaten the villagers of Leuro in order to make them leave for West Timor. The Village Chief ordered the villagers to leave for Kupang, West Timor and warned that no one was to run away. The BRT unit in Leuro was also present and told the villagers that they had two days to pack their possessions and place them outside their homes for the transfer. The BRT also provided security during the operation to ensure that no one escaped. JONI MARQUES, ALARICO FERNANDES, and others threatened to kill all the villagers if they did not leave. They burnt and shot at houses and animals. Florinda Suriano and her family were threatened that unless they went to Kupang, their house would be burned and they would be killed. During the incident Florinda Suriano's father, Antonio Suriano, who did not want to be transferred or leave his house and who was believed to be collaborating with CNRT (National Council for Timorese Resistance) was stabbed in the head. Their houses were also burnt. The villagers were told that if they did not leave they would be killed by the notorious 700 ABRI/TNI Battalion (whose acts in 1985 is attributable to numerous killings) would be returning to East Timor from Indonesia. While this operation was in progress, TNI soldiers at the nearby checkpoint took no steps to prevent the violence or protect the villagers. Instead they shouted words of encouragement.

37. JONI MARQUES then ordered that a roadblock be erected on the road with large rocks, and placed members of his group in strategic locations on the western and eastern approaches to reinforce security. JONI MARQUES, MANUEL DA COSTA and JOAO DA COSTA alias LEMORAI positioned themselves in the middle of the road. The remaining members of the group, including PAULO DA COSTA, AMELIO DA COSTA, GONSALO DOS SANTOS and HILARIO DA SILVA hid themselves near the roadside.
